

Alumni Newsletter

Volume 1, Number 2, June 2018

Congratulations Prem Alumni Class of 2018!

There is nothing better than receiving a message, or hearing through the grapevine that one of our students is pursuing their dream. We were delighted to receive a message from Gal.

'I'm so happy to share with you that I passed the final interview to Shenkar Fashion School. It took place yesterday afternoon. I had to present a portfolio, that could be any sort of art, and a piece of clothing. I asked my good friend to come to model for me. They requested us to set the dresses on headless dolls, but I couldn't imagine the dress on one. So I ended up the only one presenting my clothing with a model. She looked absolutely beautiful. Soon after this, one of the lecturers, who I know in that school informed me that I got in. I'm attaching pictures of the dress and kimono I designed and sewed for the interview.'

Gal Binyamin, Class of 2016

I wanted to drop a note since I just received the PTIS alumni newsletter and it was so nice to hear an update from the PTIS family.

A personal update, since Prem. I have gone on to get a Bachelor's in Math and Economics from Swarthmore College where I graduated last year and have since been working at Deloitte Consulting in Boston. I have been truly enjoying "adult" life and embracing my independence for the first time in my life. Next year I will be going back to graduate school at Harvard Business School to get my MBA. I still frequently meet the other Bhutanese Prem students and Araya (Nok) Wongwan from my year pretty often. During my most recent trip to Bangkok, I met Marita Wongsupa for a quick drink as well.

Welcome to our second issue of Alumni news. Thank you for all your messages, Facebook friend requests, and especially your emails full of news of your life away from Prem. I was delighted to hear from Gal and Jigme, and when I found the 'Where Are You Now' photo, it made me think of some of our early Alumni, so please if you are featured in this photo, please drop us a line and let us know where you are in the world and what you are doing.

SAVE THE DATE - We will be hosting an Alumni event in Bangkok on Sunday 23rd September - details to follow.

Enjoy the summer, wherever you are. I am enjoying temperatures in the 30's in the UK. Who would have thought it possible!!

Kind regards,
A. Linda
