IEP Philosophy Statement

17th May 2016

Learning English in the Intensive English Programme is more than just acquiring the language. We want our students to broaden their vision and through proficient use of English, become confident members of an international community.

The Intensive English Programme prepares students to grow into responsible and resilient learners, who are prepared to strive for excellence in an international education, guided by the principles of the International Baccalaureate Learner Profile.

Our teaching and learning approach is a combination of knowledge and experience-based education in small, age-specific classes. We highly value the development of student's social skills and well-being, while emphasizing the importance of sustainable living.
