Junior School Philosophy Statement

In the Junior School at PREM we are a holistic learning community that provides a rigorous, child-centred inquiry programme. We enable our students to be courageous, confident and successful through active participation in a creative, academically challenging and dynamic learning environment.

We believe in:

- empowering our learners by developing their social, communication, self-management, critical thinking and research skills
- promoting the language acquisition of every child in order to be confident learners and communicators
- challenging our children through a rigorous curriculum to be independent and responsible for their learning
- promoting curiosity, adaptability and resilience as our students take action with their learning
- collaborating with our children and parents
- connecting with our local and global communities
- the importance of all members of our Junior School community being empathetic, open minded and respectful of differences
