Where I'm From

I am from the Great Wall of China and the 'Spring City', from the Duomo (Milan cathedral) under the bright clear sky.

*I am from homemade dumplings,
from New Year and Lantern Festivals.
I am from the traditional panettone,
from every Christmas celebrated.*

*I am from the ancestral blue stone necklace,
from the special bracelets and sticker books.*

*I am from studying and with my friends at school.
I am from playing cards and balloon games at family nights.*

*I am from a simple decorated house, warm with memory,
from my small world in the corner of the house.*

*I am from mint whose leaves dance through the wind.
I am from the garden that holds my memories of childhood games.*

*I am from Liu and Kang, from regular visits with grandparents.
I am from burning joss sticks,
from freeing the bird and listening to old stories .*

I am from planting seeds with my childhood friend under the beautiful sunset.

*I am from traveling across another continent to live,
from a mix of cultural experiences.*
